

SHARING THE FULLNESS OF FAITH

CATHOLIC APOLOGETICS TO OUR PROTESTANT BRETHREN

REGINA APOSTOLORUM PONTIFICAL ATHENAEUM

ROME, APRIL 20-24 2009 (3-7 p.m.)

LED BY WELL-KNOWN APOLOGIST AND AUTHOR
STEVE RAY
www.catholicconvert.com

School of Theology
www.upra.org

Pascal Center
www.pascalcenter.org

Sacerdos Institute
www.sacerdos.org

Protestantism, relativism and secularism challenge today's Catholics to have deeper reasons for their faith. The course equips them with a series of historical, biblical, patristic and theological arguments in defense of doctrines that are frequently rejected by Protestants, relativists and secularists.

OBJECTIVES

- A better understanding of the basic truths of our faith
- Learning how to present and defend the depositum fidei to our brothers and sisters

PROGRAM

- Former-Baptist Steve's and Janet's conversion story
- Introduction to apologetics: The Catholic art of defending and sharing the fullness of the faith
- Born Again? The problem with sola fides and sola Scriptura
- The role of Mary
- The primacy of Peter
- Saint Paul: A Virtual Tour of his Life and Teachings
- The Church and the Apostolic Church Fathers
- The seven sacraments: food for the journey, weapons for the war

THE COURSE OFFERS

- Reference materials
- Certificate
- Two credits in theology for those who hand in a 5-10 page long paper on one of the topics of the course

CALENDAR

April 20 - 24, 2009. Schedule: from 3 to 7 p.m.

COST

95€
Group rates
45€ for students from Regina Apostolorum Pontifical Athenaeum

REGISTRATION

corsoray@upra.org
Phone: (+39) 06 66.54.31 (Mon/ Fri 2-4 p.m.)
Fax: (+39) 06.66.38.50;
www.upra.org

ACADEMIC COORDINATION

Father Juan Pablo Ledesma LC, Dean of the School of Theology
Father Alfonso Aguilar LC, Coordinator of the course:
aaguilar@legionaries.org