

Hello Pilgrims:

-  Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade...
-  Wrestling an angel all night at the Jabbok River...
-  Viewing the distant Promised Land from Mount Nebo...
-  Renewal of baptismal vows with Mass where Jesus was baptized...
-  Herod's mountain fortress where John the Baptist lost his head...
-  The finest Middle Eastern cuisine imaginable...

What do all of these have in common? They are all in the beautiful, friendly and safe country of Jordan.

Indiana Jones was filmed in Petra, one of the new wonders of the world.

Smithsonian Magazine listed Petra as one of the “28 Places to See Before You Die.” Experiencing Petra is on many people’s “Bucket List” — and experience it you will!

Jacob received his new name “Israel” at the Jabbok River and Moses died here after seeing the Promised Land for the first time.

Jordan is rich with biblical and Catholic history. It is also very safe and friendly.

Here Jesus was baptized and Elijah was born and assumed into heaven.

Christians live peacefully in Jordan and you will meet them and celebrate Mass in their ornate and picturesque churches.

For under $2,000 you can add this exotic, spiritual and cultural adventure to the February Holy Land pilgrimage.

My good Catholic friend Elias Khzouz will be our guide. The hotels, meals, bus and adventures are all included. Friendly people will surround you!
